Legal Action Will Be Taken Against Freelancers On IPR Breaching

Intellectual Property Rights Breaching Intellectual Property Rights is Offensive and Legal Action will be taken Against Freelancers

Dear Partners,

In the past few months, we have received several complaints from various news channels that some freelancers are using intellectual properties of news channels (Forbes India, Hindustan Times, News18 etc).

This is to inform you that the usage of any logo of any news channel associated with is prohibited. The reuse of the intellectual property of our associate news channels for any purpose is unauthorized. We (Digpu News Network) have never given anybody the authority to do so. In case of Intellectual Property Rights Breach, a legal action will be initiated towards that person or agency. However, clients can utilize the names of published articles on their particular websites.

For any further clarification, kindly discuss with your relationship manager at Digpu News Network or mail us at sales@digpu.com.
